

Royalton Conservation Commission
Goals and Interests
As of 4/23/18

Green Up Day – May 5, 2018 (Year 48)

<http://www.greenupvermont.org/>

Organize with other local community organizations

White River Partnership – 5 river access sites

<http://whiteriverpartnership.org/white-river-water-trail/>

Semi-annual cleanup work days (September is Vermont's River cleanup month)

White River Water Trail Royalton sites are:

- FEMA sites: Gilman access and Foxville Park
- Bridge Street river access, Royalton Village
- Payne's Beach - Lyons Club
- Pinched Rock – across from Peg Elmer's house
- Avery's Rock – across from Red Dog Restoration

Crawford Property

Was surveyed for current use when privately owned. No longer in current use.

Windsor County Forester, Alan Follensbee perform a Forest Assessment

We would then hire a forester to develop land management plan

timber management and harvesting

Trail system

invasive species management

prepare for climate change

Sarnoff Property – Royalton Town Forest

Jonathan Bouton, Windsor County Forester, Forest Assessment 5/27/02

Land management Plan created 12/04. Rose has a plan in her office.

Windsor County Forester Allen Follensbee to update previous plan (?) or Paul Harwood to manage (?)

Sugarbush

Timber management and harvesting

Trail between S. Royalton and Bethel – sports training, biking, hiking, x-c running/skiing.

Memberships with:

AVCC: association of Vermont Conservation Commission - 2017

Resources:

VT Coverts (<https://vtcoverts.org>)

Royalton Library may have/has Brad's collection of resource books